

From the skyline down to the waterline, Charleston is a city shaped by water. The Charleston Civic Design Center is pleased to announce the opening of the H2Oly City Photography Competition Exhibition. This free exhibit showcases all 107 entries from photographers in and around the Charleston region. The winning works in Open and Youth classifications will be announced at the public opening on May 15th, 6:00-8:00pm. The winners were chosen by a jury of three distinguished local photographers based on the criteria of aesthetic quality, composition, and the photograph's ability to illustrate the relationship between water and Charleston. In addition, all attendees at the opening event will be given an opportunity to place their vote for the Peoples' Choice Award.

Following the opening, the exhibition is free and open for viewing weekdays from 9 am to 5 pm from May 18th to the June 19th at the Charleston Civic Design Center located at 85 Calhoun Street.
